

RePublic Schools procedure for receiving and processing Civil Rights complaints alleging discrimination within our Child Nutrition Program is as follows:

Right to File a Complaint

Any person alleging discrimination in the Child Nutrition Program based on race, color, national origin, sex, age, or disability has a right to file a complaint within 180 days of the alleged discriminatory action. The Secretary of Agriculture or his designee may waive the 180 filing deadline for good cause. The reason justifying the waiver must be documented in writing in the complaint file.

None of the procedures set forth by RePublic Schools will prevent a civil rights complaint from being accepted.

How to File a Complaint

All civil rights complaints regarding the Child Nutrition Program in RePublic Schools should be directed to Trey Vernaci, Senior Director of Operations. Frontline staff will be instructed on how to handle complaints appropriately should they receive a complaint.

Complaints may be submitted verbally, in writing, or anonymously. If a complaint is submitted verbally or in person, it should be noted by the person taking the complaint. Anonymous complaints will be handled as any other to the extent feasible based on available information.

Verbal Complaints – the person to whom the allegations are made must write up (transcribe) the elements of the complaint for the complainant. Every effort should be made to have the complainant provide the following information:

- Complainant Name, address & phone (email or other contacting means)
- Specific location and name of agency delivering the service or benefit
- Nature of the incident or action that led the complainant to feel discriminated
- What protected base (prohibited basis or protected class) the complainant feels discriminated against
- Names, phone numbers, titles, addresses of persons who may have knowledge of the discriminatory action
- The date(s) which the alleged discriminatory actions occurred or duration of such actions

Online: Any person alleging discrimination may file a complaint with RePublic Schools using the complaint form at THIS LINK.
